Prior Art Publishing is a service provider for defensive publications. Publication services are offered to help inventors and innovative companies to optimize their intellectual property strategy by effectively creating State of the Art. Disclosures can be published online and/or in one of Prior Art Publishing's printed journals.

The evidential publication date and the accessibility to an unlimited group of people is secured by the AccessProof™ publication process (optional service; valid, if AccessProof™ is designated as method of evidence). Patent offices around the world accept AccessProof™ as a provable publication method.
